

Advance Passenger
Processing Infringement:
Request for Extension of Payment Date

Form
1466

An extension for payment of an infringement notice can be granted by an authorised officer, if they are satisfied that in all circumstances it is proper to do so, whether or not the period of 28 days after the date of service of the notice has expired. The authorised officer will consider the reason for the request, and will advise in writing whether or not an extension for payment has been granted.

Operator's email address

I, , as an authorised representative of the operator, formally request an extension of the payment date for the infringements listed below.

[illegible]

Email completed forms and any other attachments to the Advance Passenger Processing Reporting Infringement Team (APPRIT): APPIInfringements@abf.gov.au

Please keep a copy of this form and all attachments for your records.