UNDERTAKES as follows:

1. Where, after the date of this deed –
 - (a) goods are imported into AUSTRALIA by persons and/or for purposes eligible under section 162 of the Customs Act 1901; and
 - (b) permission is granted pursuant to section 162 of the Customs Act 1901 to the Undertaking Giver, or other person either approved by the Undertaking Giver or for whom the Undertaking Giver acts as agent, to take delivery of the goods without payment of customs duty and/or Goods and Services Tax and/or Luxury Car Tax; and
 - (c) the goods so delivered have been dealt with in contravention of the Customs Regulation 2015; or
 - (d) the goods so delivered are not exported within the prescribed period referred to in section 162(3)(b)(i) of the Customs Act 1901; and
 - (e) one or more of the circumstances or conditions specified in the regulations apply in relation to the goods.

The Undertaking Giver shall upon demand pay to the Commonwealth an amount equal to the amounts of customs duty and taxes that would have been payable in respect of the goods if they had been entered for home consumption on the day on which they were delivered and if permission to take delivery of the goods without payment of customs duty and taxes had not been granted.

and AGREES that:

2. any amount which becomes payable under Clause 1 hereof shall be a debt due to the Commonwealth and may be sued for and recovered in a Court of competent jurisdiction.
3. the obligations of the Undertaking Giver under this deed shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of $_____. Where the Undertaking Giver is a partnership the liability of the partners shall be joint and several.
4. any demand made under this deed upon the Undertaking Giver shall be deemed to have been made if it is in writing and signed by or on behalf of a Collector and sent by prepaid post as a letter addressed to the Undertaking Giver or left by hand at the address set forth in this deed or at the address last notified to the Collector under Clause 7 hereof, and any such demand sent by prepaid post shall be deemed to have been received by the Undertaking Giver at the time when such demand would in the ordinary course of post have been delivered.
5. in proceedings to recover any amount payable under this deed a certificate purporting to be signed by a Collector shall be prima facie evidence of the matters stated herein.
6. an officer of Customs may request at any time to inspect the goods to which this deed relates and all books, accounts, records and documents relating to such goods and may take such extracts from or make copies of, such books, accounts, records and documents as the officer deems necessary.
7. if there is any alteration in the name or address of the Undertaking Giver or if the Undertaking Giver ceases to carry on business, or, where the Undertaking Giver is a natural person or a partnership or carries on business under a firm or business name, there is any alteration in the ownership or control of the Undertaking Giver's business, the Undertaking Giver shall give to the Collector at each of the ports to which the provisions of this deed relate, written notice of the fact within 7 days after the date on which the alteration or cessation takes place.
8. in this deed – "Collector" means the Comptroller-General of Customs or any officer of Customs doing duty in the matter in relation to which the expression is used.
9. a reference in this deed to section 162 of the Customs Act 1901 shall be read as a reference to that section as in force as amended at the date of this Undertaking, and to any provision amending or replacing the same.
