and
(in this security called 'the surety') are jointly and severally bound to the Commonwealth for the payment to the Commonwealth of the sum of $5,000.

WHEREAS: (tick applicable)

- (a) the objector is the owner
- a licensed user

as defined under the Olympic Insignia Protection Act 1987 ('the Act') of the protected Olympic expressions described in the schedule of this security;

- (b) the objector has notified the Comptroller-General of Customs in writing, pursuant to section 52 of the Act, that they object to the importation of goods manufactured outside Australia and having applied to those goods an Olympic expression listed in the schedule overleaf;
- (c) the objector has requested the Comptroller-General of Customs to seize any such goods, under subsection 54(2) of the Act, if imported;
- (d) before taking action under subsection 54(2) or permitting an officer to take action under that subsection the Comptroller-General of Customs, in pursuance of subsection 54(3), has required the objector to give this security.

The objector shall, upon a demand made by the Comptroller-General of Customs, forthwith reimburse the Commonwealth for all expenses incurred by it by virtue of any action taken by the Comptroller-General of Customs in relation to the goods under the Act. This bond shall remain in full force until it is discharged in reimbursing the Commonwealth in the above matter.
