

AUSTRALIAN CUSTOMS NOTICE NO. 2009/04

Import controls of General Lighting Service (GLS) Electric Filament Lamps

The importation of General Lighting Service (GLS) Electric Filament Lamps will be prohibited under the Customs (Prohibited Imports) Regulations 1956 (the Regulations) from 1 February 2009, unless an import permission has been granted.

The Regulations require a person seeking to import GLS lamps to obtain permission from the Minister for Industry prior to the importation. Permissions will only be granted in a limited number of circumstances. For all import permission enquiries please contact the Department of Industry on Ph. 1800 770 161 or <http://www.energyrating.gov.au/programs/e3-program/meps/about/>

The prohibition covers a range of inefficient GLS electric filament lamps as set out in Australian Standard 4934.2-2011 - Incandescent Lamps for General Lighting Services, Part 2: Minimum Energy Performance Standards (MEPS) Requirements.

The prohibited lamps have the following characteristics:

Voltage	≥ 220V
Wattage	< 150 Watts (typically 25, 40, 60, 75 and 100 Watts)
Base: either of – AND	 bayonet	 screw
Shape: any of – WITH	 pear	 tubular	 mushroom
Bulb diameter	≥ 50mm
Finish: either of -	 clear	 frosted
Filament	conventional filament

The import prohibition does not apply to GLS lamps that are imported as part of other equipment, coloured GLS lamps, silvered GLS lamps, candle lamps; fancy round lamps; halogen or compact fluorescent lamps (CFL).

Further Information

Penalty

The maximum penalty for importing these goods without import approval is a fine not exceeding $110,000 or 5 times the value of the goods, whichever is the greater.

Contacts

For information on the background to this import restriction contact the Department of Industry, Ph. 1800 770 161 or energyrating@industry.gov.au

Inquiries concerning this notice may be directed to the Manager, Environment and Wildlife, Community Protection, Australian Customs and Border Protection Service on telephone number (02) 6229 3825 or environment.wildlife@customs.gov.au

Geoff Johannes
National Manager
Trade Branch
Trade and Customs Division
CANBERRA ACT
Updated September 2014