Australian Trusted Traders (ATT) under AANZFTA and CEPA

The Australian Border Force is extending the Australian Trusted Trader Origin Waiver benefit to the AANZFTA and CEPA from 1 October 2025.

This is an expansion of the existing ATT Origin Waiver benefit provisions, available in ACN 2022/50, ACN 2022/13, ACN 2020/18, ACN 2020/43, ACN 2020/48 and ACN 2019/23.

The ATT Origin Waiver benefit means ATT importers are not required to obtain or present an AANZFTA or CEPA Certificate of Origin to claim preferential rates of duty for originating goods under the respective agreements.

Compliance approach to waivers of Certificate of Origin under AANZFTA and CEPA

Importers making use of the waiver of Certificates of Origin are still required to keep evidence for a period of at least five years from the day of importation that imported goods comply with the relevant rules of origin and present this evidence if requested. Examples of evidence can include: proof of the last place of manufacture; commercial documentation and contracts; statements in relation to manufacturing process; and materials and compliance with cost requirements from manufacturers.

The evidence will need to prove that the goods meet the requirements of:

- For AANZFTA, Division 1G of the Customs Act 1901 and the AANZFTA rules of origin.
- For CEPA, Division 1Q of the Customs Act 1901 and the UAE rules of origin.

Importers may be able to meet a request for evidence of origin by obtaining a Certificate of Origin from the producer or exporter.

Where duty has been paid on originating goods entered for home consumption on or after 1 October 2025, they are able to apply for a refund of overpaid duties using the waiver of Certificate of Origin. An application for a refund must include documentary evidence of origin, such as the commercial documentation and manufacturer's statements.

This waiver does not apply to exports made by Trusted Traders to parties to any trade agreement.
